

Aim of WISE

- To build a platform for excellent academic research and education in materials science for sustainable technologies, that can interact with leading companies in Sweden
- WISE's key values are research excellence together with societal and industrial relevance

WISE organization

- Operative and project steering
- Advisory
- Support for operative activities

Board of Directors

Sven Stafström
Chair

Fredrik Overgaard
Stena Recycling

Anders Palmqvist
Vice Chair WISE
Chalmers University of Technology

Annika Borgenstam
KTH Royal Institute of Technology

Charlotte Platzer
Björkman
Uppsala University

Per Dannetun
Linköping University

Henrik Cederquist
Stockholm University

Georgios Demetriades
ABB

Maria Persson Gulda
H2 Green Steel

Viktor Öwall
Lund University

Eva Gustavsson
Tetra Pak

The Board's mission

Responsibility for giving the programme the best conditions for fulfilling its goals according to the donation letter from KAW

- Strategy
- Content
- Budget
- Monitoring
- Goals

Some specific tasks

- Decide the allocation of funding within WISE
- Continuously monitor the programme's economy
- Appointment of the programme's director, vice director, coordinator, GS director, WIRA director, university representative group, advisory committee, ISAB

The International Scientific Advisory Board (ISAB)

- Kristin Persson (Professor UC Berkeley)
 - Zhenan Bao (Professor Stanford)
 - Yang Shao-Horn (Professor MIT)
 - Konstantin Novoselov (Professor, University of Manchester)
 - Frank Wilczek (Professor MIT and Stockholm University)
 - Markus Antonietti (Professor Max Planck Institute of Colloids and Interfaces)
- i. provides guidance to the WISE program in terms of the scientific quality, organization and future priorities of the program
 - ii. act as ambassadors for international cooperation by stimulating international cooperation through their own networks
 - iii. evaluates the WISE program and the work of the program board reporting to Knut and Alice Wallenberg Foundation.